

SALISBURY IS DEAD

King Edward Pays a Tribute to the Marquis and Former Premier of Great Britain.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGES POUR IN.

In the Death of Lord Salisbury Passes the Greatest Englishman of the Day.

The Funeral Has Been Provisionally Fixed For the End of This Week to Enable Lord Edward Cecil to Assist.

London, Aug. 24.—Lord Salisbury, last of the great statesmen of the past generation, is dead under the burden of his advanced age.

Lord Salisbury had been ill since early last winter, but his condition was not regarded as serious until in the beginning of the present month. According to the medical journals he suffered from internal paralysis, which developed from the illness following the death of his wife in 1899. Notwithstanding his illness, he had persisted in working until he was forced to take to his bed.

In the death of Lord Salisbury passes the greatest Englishman of the day. Ten years ago half the nation only would have asserted so much; to-day all Britain recognizes him as such.

The newspapers Monday morning, some of which appear with black borders, devote the bulk of their space to the last hours and career of the marquis of Salisbury. In their editorials they pay warm tributes and express deep admiration for the dead man, recognizing that with him there passes away the last of the great English statesman of the Victoria era, as well as the last of the brilliant group of European diplomats.

King Edward's tribute to the deceased marquis of Salisbury was given in the Court Circular Sunday night, dated Marienbad, Sunday. It runs as follows:

"The king has received with profound regret the news of the death of the marquis of Salisbury and his majesty deeply deplures the loss of so great a statesman whose invaluable services to Queen Victoria, to the king and his country in the highest offices of state which he held for so many years will ever dwell in the memory of his fellow countrymen."

Messages of condolence are pouring in at Hatfield house. The senders include King Edward and Queen Alexandra, the queen of Portugal and President Loubet. Touching references were made to the dead statesman in the pulpits of almost all the churches in the United Kingdom. There were many visitors to the village of Hatfield Sunday.

The parish church was crowded Sunday morning, the worshippers including Premier Balfour, the earl and countess of Selborne, the marquis' sons and the members of his family and household.

Lord William Cecil, the rector of the church, officiated, but beyond choice music and appropriate hymns the service was of the usual character.

The senior curate in his sermon paid a tribute to the deceased, specially dwelling on his private virtues and his devotion to the church. In the conclusion of the discourse the whole congregation rose and remained standing while the organist played the Dead March in Saul. The funeral has been provisionally fixed for the end of this week to enable Lord Edward Cecil, who is on his way home from Egypt, to assist.

Canadian Government Determined to Put a Stop to It.

He Swore on the Stand That He Did Not Shoot Senator Goebel.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 24.—"Mr. Howard, did you shoot Senator Goebel?" questioned Prosecutor Violett Saturday afternoon when Jim Howard was put on the stand in the Powers trial.

Intense silence reigned throughout the courtroom. Clearly and distinctly came the reply to Mr. Violett's question:

"I did not, sir."

This and many similar questions were propounded and answered. Howard denied knowing Youtsey until introduced to him by Youtsey's wife in the Frankfort jail, both Youtsey and Howard having been convicted.

Howard denied ever having known Taylor previous to the shooting, or that he was in the executive building or on Capitol square the day prior to the tragedy.

He told on direct examination by Attorney Violett, of Powers' counsel, the story that he has told on each of the three trials which he has had in the Franklin circuit court.

Much of the time of the court was taken up in proving the good character of the body of mountain men which visited Frankfort January 25, 1900. The defense late Saturday afternoon took an attachment for State Treasurer Walter Day, of Breathitt county, who had been summoned and did not appear.

A PANIC ON BOARD.

BELIEVED TWO PEOPLE DROWNED

Thirty Persons Were Thrown Into the Water, But Were Rescued by Skiffs on the Canal.

Several Men Became Wild From the Excitement and Made Attempts to Throw Women and Children From the Vessel.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 24.—Amid scenes of panic in which terror-stricken men lost their heads and sought to throw women and children overboard, the pleasure steamer Indiana went to the bottom of the Indianapolis Water Co.'s canal at Fairview Park Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

The park officials think nobody was drowned, but J. N. Oliphant, of Indianapolis, and P. E. Betts, of Anderson, Ind., who were passengers, say that they saw a woman and baby sink to the bottom. They did not see them come to the surface again and feel sure they were drowned.

About fifty people were on board when the vessel sank, about three-quarters of a mile above its starting point in the canal, which is about eight miles long and runs from Indianapolis to Broad Ripple Park. The canal is narrow and from ten to fifteen feet deep in the middle. It is not yet certain what sent the steamer to the bottom.

Defective machinery, overloading on one side and leaks are blamed by different persons.

Skiffs on the canal aided in the work of rescue of fainting women and children. Mr. Bates, who says he saw the woman and baby drown, saved his wife as she sank the third time. She weighs over 200 pounds.

Thirty people were thrown into the water when the boat sank. Several of the male passengers did heroic work in getting them to shore. They were aided by the ship's crew. Much additional excitement was caused by several men on the boat who became panic-stricken and tried to throw women and children into the water. Search is being made to see if any bodies are at the bottom of the canal.

Taylor has urgent need to clear his own skirts before he interferes in behalf of other culprits.

It's probable a "Philadelphia lawyer" couldn't tell what need innocent men would have for a pardon.

It's probably the first case in the history of crime or criminals that a pardon was issued "because of the man's innocence."

If Taylor were giving pardons only to "innocent" men, why didn't he furnish the whole gang with them, as he claims they are all innocent.

It's too bad for Howard that Taylor didn't issue him a pardon along with Powers. Perhaps his excellency didn't know so much about Jim's innocence.

Taylor has volunteered the information that none of the accused is guilty in the matter of Goebel's assassination. Now let him name the one that is guilty, and clear the whole subject.

The reason Taylor prefers to do his talking at Indianapolis is because he doesn't have to answer what he might call impertinent questions, but what would be, in reality, very pertinent ones.

Taylor may as well make up his mind to the fact that no lie or lies he may concoct are going to change the belief of a great majority of the honest people that he is responsible for the assassination of William Goebel.

When Taylor has established his own innocence in the matter of complicity in the dastardly assassination of William Goebel then will be his golden opportunity to come forward in behalf of the rest of the accused.

BIG POULTRY PRIZES.

Thousands Dollars in Cash Will be Distributed at the State Fair—Also Fine Prizes For Belgian Hares, and the Greatest Pigeon Show Ever Held in South.

The poultry and Belgian hares and pigeon shows at the Kentucky State Fair in Owensboro, the week of September 21st, will be the largest ever held south of the Ohio river. Mr. John H. Good is Superintendent of the Poultry Department, and Mr. C. Stanley Sale, of the Pigeon Department. The services of Mr. Theodore Howes, of Indianapolis, have been secured as judge of the Poultry Department. He is an expert judge of standard-bred poultry. The total amount of premiums for the department, is $1,000, as follows: Breeding pen, first, $3; second, $1; single birds, first, $2; second, $1. Breeding pens must be made in a separate entry. There will be a special building for poultry, pigeons and Belgian hares. All breeders should make an effort to show their birds and hares, as it will be both an honor and an advertisement to win in such competition.

Mr. Sale has arranged for a pigeon show that is attracting national interest. Remember that a dozen of the very finest amusement attractions have been secured for the State fair and that they are free to all who enter the gates of the fair grounds.

THE ELKS FAIR.

It Was a Success Financially.
Biggest Crowd of Week
Out Saturday.

Probably Last Fair On Present Grounds, as New Owner Bought Land For Other Purposes.

The crowd at the Elks fair Saturday was the largest of the week, and the fair was a success financially. The display of live stock was one of the best ever seen on the grounds. In one of the rings, that for the best saddle horse, mare or gelding, the judges were nearly an hour tying the ribbons. They could not agree and a fourth had to be called in to settle it. Following is a list of the successful exhibitors for the day:

COMBINED HORSES.

Horse, mare or gelding, four years and over, $10; Ware & Poindexter, Cynthiaana.
Horse, mare or gelding, three years and over, $10; J. L. Horton, Paris.
Best mare and two colts, $10; J. L. Owens, Flemingsburg.
Best suckling colt, any sex, first premium, $20; W. H. Berry, Mt. Olivet; second, $5; Tomlin & Peed, Mt. Olivet.

BULLS, COWS AND CALVES.

Best bull, any age or breed, first premium, $20; O. G. Callahan, Helena; second, $5; Alex. Duke, Mayslick.
Best cow, any age or breed, first premium, $20; O. G. Callahan, Helena; second, $5; same.
Best suckling calf, any sex, under nine months old, first premium, $20; Alex. Duke, Mayslick; second, $5; O. G. Callahan, Helena.
Best Jersey cow, $10; "Highland Dairy," J. R. Davis, Maysville.
Best pacing mare or gelding, $15; Thelie Owens, Washington.
Best road mare or gelding, looks, pleasant handling qualities, count as much as speed, first premium, $20; C. W. Ross, of Felicity, O.; second, $10; Biggers & Anderson, Maysville; third, $5; Feagin Bros., Brooksville.
Best saddle horse, mare or gelding, first premium, $30; Ward & Berry, Cynthiaana; second, $25; same; third, $15; Donnell Bros., Carlisle; fourth, $10; G. K. Winter, Maysville.
Coach gelding, $10; Biggers & Anderson, Maysville.
Coach mare, $10; Tomlin & Peed, Mt. Olivet.
Best harness mare or gelding, first premium, $20; Biggers & Anderson; second, $5; Ward & Berry, Georgetown.
Best walk, trot or canter horse, mare or gelding, first premium, $20; Feagin Bros.; second, $5; Ward & Berry.

This will probably prove the last fair on the present grounds, as it is said to be the intention of the new owner, Mr. A. C. Spahr, to establish a big brick plant in the grounds. However, parties interested in the electric railway have been making an effort to secure the ground, and if they should succeed it is safe to say the fairs will continue. But if they should fail to effect a deal for the grounds, it is said to be the intention of some parties to establish a fair ground on land near the old race track south of the Sixth ward.

That the fair is a big thing for the street railway is shown by the number of passengers carried last week. On Wednesday the cars handled, in round numbers, about 2,700 passengers; Thursday, 3,300; Friday close to 4,500, and on Saturday about 5,500—about 16,000 during the fair.

Mrs. Lee B. Gray is thought to be improving slowly after an illness of four weeks.

Mrs. Ella Parry, formerly of Washington, mother of Mr. L. K. Parry, of this city, is critically ill at the home of her son Thomas W., in Kansas City, as a result of a stroke of paralysis. No hopes are entertained of her recovery.

A dog thought to be suffering from hydrophobia was killed at Aberdeen Saturday after it bit Mayor C. C. Ellis and Messrs. A. T. Boswell, Otis Sutton and Joseph Waldron. The parties bitten should test the mad stone owned by the Lee family near Rectorville.

POYNTZ Bros. are the only Maysville distillers selling pure liquors by the quart, gallon or barrel, direct from distillery to consumer. Seven-year-old whisky $2 per gallon. Age and quality guaranteed. Get the best. Office 126 Market street—Watson's old stand.

Waldo Gilbert and Frank Tolle, each aged about fifteen, figured in a fracas at the opera house Saturday night, resulting in Gilbert cutting Tolle in the leg, inflicting an ugly wound above the knee. Tolle was removed to his home in the West End on a street car. He is a son of James Tolle. Gilbert will have a hearing before Squire Grant, Thursday morning.

The parties who figured in the affray at Second and Wall streets a week ago Saturday evening were tried Saturday before Squire Farrow. Frank Brevard was held in the sum of $200 to answer charge of malicious shooting and wounding. The charge against Leonard Sparks of aiding and abetting him was dismissed and he will be tried Wednesday for a breach of the peace. Howard Blythe was fined $50 and costs for breach of the peace. The warrant against Wm. Applegate, who was wounded, was dismissed.

Our entire fall stock is in. Before your boys start to school bring them in.

With us they can choose from the productions of the famous manufacturers, Stein, Bloch Co., L. Adler Bros. and Co., Garson Meyer Co., three of the greatest concerns in Rochester, New York. The majority of the "boys" know these makes and want them.

Our trade on these lines has grown to such proportion that the qualities we buy and sell of them enables us to sell them for no more than you would have to pay for much lesser qualities in other houses. You do yourself justice to look over our lines before you buy.

Resolutions Adopted by the Teachers.
At the closing session of the institute last Thursday these resolutions were offered and adopted by a unanimous vote:
Resolved, That, at the present meeting of the Mason County Institute, we feel it has in every particular been beneficial and inspiring. We also feel that the instruction has been of such a nature as to lead every teacher on in his efforts to higher effectiveness in his work. For this true educational spirit do we particularly thank our instructors, each one of whom has offered valuable and lasting food for thought. Our worthy Superintendent has also added much to the success of the work by his fitting selection of said instructors, and for this fact our thanks are especially due.

Resolved, That we thank Miss Edith Berry and others who so ably aided in the musical part of our program, and that grateful acknowledgement will be made to the School Board for the use of the High School building during the sessions.
Resolved, That Prof. J. A. Drushel be most sincerely thanked for his kind offer of a scholarship in the N. N. U. of Lebanon, O., to the pupil who makes the best grade in the county, and a term in the summer school to the teacher who succeeds in training that pupil.

Furthermore, be it resolved, that we especially recognize the interest of those visitors who by their presence from time to time showed that the matter of education is still one of vital importance.

A CITIZEN DISCUSSES

A Vital Question—Fraught With Interest to Maysville People.

When a citizen right here at home makes a public statement like the following, all room for doubt disappears and the most skeptical must be convinced. It's pretty hard for our readers to prove a statement made by a stranger living in some far-away point of the union, but the endorsement of neighbors, friends and citizens is the best of proof; no better evidence can be had:

Mr. P. Gantley, grocer of 314 East Fourth street, says: "The prompt and thorough relief from backache given by Doan's Kidney Pills is the strongest endorsement possible. When backache is caused by the lack of proper action of the kidneys the only reason for continuing to suffer is the want of knowledge of Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, West Second and Market streets."
